U.S. gasoline prices increase (long version)

The U.S. average retail price for regular gasoline fell to $2.10 a gallon on Monday. That's down 9 tenths of a penny from a week ago, based on the weekly price survey by the U.S. Energy Information Administration.

Pump prices were highest in the West Coast states at $2.77 a gallon, seeing no movement from last week. Prices were lowest in the Gulf Coast states at $1.77 a gallon, down 1 cent.
